TOREWORD TOREWORD

As the memories of the joy and the pain Of the year fade slowly away, And we are scattered widely. Will we remember? We may.

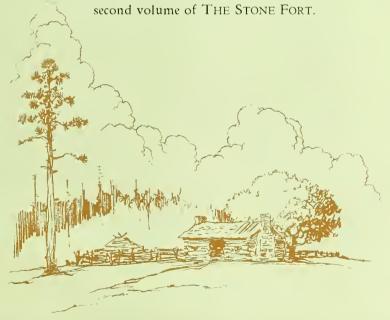

Then THE STONE FORT may help you. Twas this hope that kept us strong In the face of gigantic tasks—
Tasks we assailed with a song.

As your memories fade from your mind, As landscapes at dusk from the view, Take down your STONE FORT from the bookshelf, And let it talk memories to you.

EDICATION

To John Harold Wisely, in grateful and appreciative recognition of his tireless energy in serving every member of this institution and his unfailing courtesy. cheerfulness, and good fellowship in every contact with his fellow-travellers, we dedicate this second volume of THE STONE FORT.

CONTENTS

The historic old Stone Fort is an eloquent reminder of the sacrifices and patriotism of our Pioneer Fathers who established here Anglo-American civilization and dedicated the fairest of all lands to Universal Education. Religious Freedom and Representative Government.

This page is dedicated to Mr. Frank S. Aikman, of Nacogdoches, whose generosity made it possible for us to have the Aikman Gymnasium, which is fast becoming the center of our college life, and which will serve the young men and young women of East Texas throughout all the coming years.

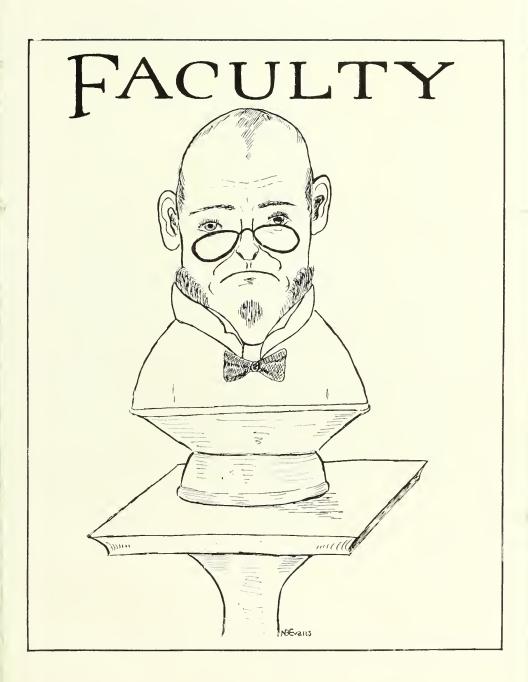

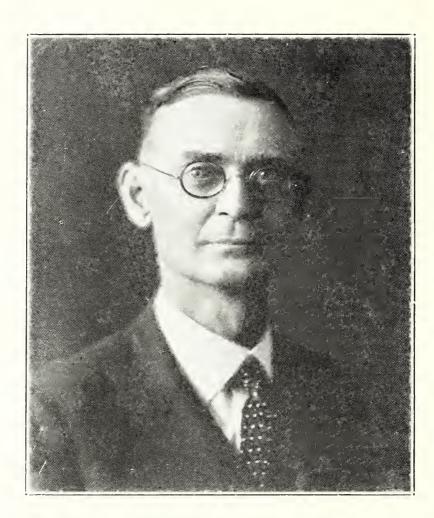

This page is dedicated to Mr. Eugene H. Blount, whose wise counsel and helpful service have been available throughout the entire history of the college. A finished scholar, himself, he has been an inspiration to those who seek scholarship. A cultivated gentleman, he has promoted chivalry in deportment and behavior. Orator, statesman, and philanthropist, he has cheered us in our days of trial and has contributed immeasurably to the future of the college.

BETANE PART IN LET WORK

ALTON W. BIRDWELL, M. A. President

To the Students of 1924-1925:

When you receive your STONE FORT, your college record for the year 1924-1925 will have been written. During the year you have come into vital relationship with man's best thoughts and highest achievements. Therefore, you can not escape added responsibilities.

The State's investment in you can only be justified by what you do in the coming years. A knowledge of past achievements is valuable only in so far as it has inspired to worthy endeavor. Noble thoughts should stimulate noble thinking, and noble thinking should issue in constructive service.

Many of you will become the teachers of little children. Their training will determine future civilization. In a vital sense, therefore, you are prophets of the future. Your work, well done, has in it the seeds of life; poorly done, the seeds of death. See to it, therefore, that you take into the school room a mind capable of clean and wholesome thinking.

As your friend and fellow student, I can not wish any better thing for you than that you should become a constructive force in promoting clear and accurate thinking, integrity of purpose, and nobility of life.

BOW FRONT MARE

Miss Ruth Mays
Dean of Women

This is Miss Mays at her desk in the office of Dean of Women. She is our friend and counsellor. If we want ideas, we merely look our wish, and from her brain come trooping suggestions for teas, parties, toasts, and programs. She is a friend whose whimsical humor lends zest to our work—a lady, whose unselfishness and beauty of character have helped to shape our ideals. Miss Mays has scolded us and laughed with us; she has always been firm and yet always fair and kind. She has served as an inspiration to all of us, and she has proved herself to be an able instructor—ever ready to reward earnest effort.

TOMORROWS

When her zenith the moon has attained, She takes her disillusioned way Down to bitter oblivion In the deeps far out in the bay.

Yet there's tomorrow, and other tomorrows; She repeats her steady climb Up from dawning to the zenith And about her tasks sublime.

So, I am facing oblivion—
My time to stay is small,
Yet there's tomorrow, and other tomorrows,
There's a zenith in them all.

—Pearl Miller, '25.

COLORS: Orange and White

The Sophomore Class of 1924-1925, the original Freshman Class of S. F. A., is, has been, and will be an illustrious class. To show something of what it has meant to the school: it produced seven football letter men; in the last season the captain of the squad was a Sophomore; three of the school favorites are Sophomores; both publications of the school are edited by Sophomores; and two Sophomores are members of the office force.

The class owes much to its livewire sponsor, Mr. Jimmie Hinds, for the pep he put in the class and for coaching the football team that beat the Fish.

We hope that we may all be back to be Juniors of S. F. A. in 1925-1926, and that we may have the same bunch of good fellows who were the Sophomores of 1925.

LIVING

Our campus, how we admire it! With tall and fearless pines; It's so different from all others: To us it's like a sign,

That we should not, like other men. Copy from the dead past; But strive toward a higher goal Than they who gained fame last.

We're only now beginning life.
Let's try each one to give
Something good to his fellow men.
Oh, don't live just to live!

DEMINSTRATION SCHOOL

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADES

Where We Learn to Teach

For the purpose of supplying observation and practice teaching needs, the college maintains as a part of the Department of Education a Demonstration School of six elementary grades. The plan is to conduct effective elementary instruction with normal groups of children under as normal conditions as possible.

Well-trained critic teachers are employed to carry on this instruction and to supervise the practice teaching in the grades they teach. Sophomore, Junior, and Senior students have an opportunity to practice under expert supervision, not only to meet certificate and degree requirements but also to prepare themselves for more successful teaching.

This second year in the life of the Demonstration School, regardless of handicaps, has been a very successful and profitable one. Approximately sixty advanced college students received the training the school affords.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES

FIRST AND SECOND GRADES

NOTE: The title plate for the Demonstration School was drawn by Lewis Holland. a sixth grade student. Several of the students competed in a drawing contest in which his drawing was chosen. Robbie Jean Hill and Louis Wortham came out second and third in the contest.

ATHLETICS

THE WEARERS of THE "T"

BOB SHELTON, Coach

He proved himself a real athlete in college, and now he is proving his ability to coach college athletes. Although this is only his third year as a coach, he is putting out teams that make the older coaches of older colleges sit up and take notice. He knows how to instill a spirit into the men that makes them fight from the first whistle until the last. They are willing to stand by him through thick and thin. "Give them all you've got, but be clean," is his motto, and his boys live up to it.

Coach Shelton's popularity is not confined to the athletes of the college. As a man, he has won the respect and admiration of the entire school and of the town as well.

RESUME OF SEASON

When the youth of this college is taken into consideration, the record made by S. F. A. in 1924 is a fine one. No other college in Texas has ever accomplished as much in its second year as was accomplished by this college this season. Although some of the best teams in the state were played, the Lumberjacks held their own well, winning one out of four T. I. A. A. games, winning two junior college games, and holding the other teams to a close score. Most of the letter men intend to be back next year, and great prospects are in view for next season.

Much of the success of the team may be attributed to the training camp. About twenty-five men were put in shape for the game there.

THE GAME WITH SAM HOUSTON

The Bearcats were very much surprised at the strength of the Lumberjacks. The game was a close, hard game from the first. Although the Lumberjacks were outclassed in weight, they made up for this handicap with fight. Neither team was able to cross the goal line. The Bearcats got within six inches of the Lumberjacks' goal line, but they were unable to penetrate the defense of the Lumberjacks. The only scores were made in the third quarter. Summers kicked a field goal, making the score 3 to 0. A little later, in the same quarter, he was tackled behind his own goal, giving the Bearcats a safety and making the score 3 to 2 in favor of the Lumberjacks.

AT SAN MARCOS

The Lumberjacks entered this game fresh from their victory over the Bearcats, and the Bobcats knew that a hard fight was ahead of them. Summers was hurt early in the game, but he was able to go back in the fourth quarter and to carry the ball over for the Lumberjacks' only touchdown. Luck was with the Bobcats all through the game. They scored in the last few seconds of the first half and again in the last play of the last half. The Bobcats won by a score of 23 to 6.

THE HILLSBORO GAME

This was the first game played by the Lumberjacks on their home ground. The Hillsboro team played a clean, hard game, but they were outclassed, both in weight and skill. The game was rather one-sided: the entire game was played in the Hillsboro territory. Coach Shelton gave almost every man on the squad a tryout in this game. The final whistle found the Lumberjacks with a 34 to 0 lead.

THE GAME WITH LON MORRIS

The first game of the season to be lost on our new gridiron, was lost to Lon Morris by the close margin. 3-0. The teams were fairly evenly matched, and the play was largely in the center of the field. The visitors came within kicking distance in the last quarter; the ball struck the cross piece of the goal but bounded safely over, giving them a three-point lead. The Lumberjacks played better ball in the last quarter but failed to place their drop-kick, thus losing the game.

THE GAME WITH SOUTH PARK

The Lumberjacks lost their next game at home, but they gave a good account of themselves when "Bull" Johnson brought his heavy team here. Defeat was evident for the home team from the first, but they scrapped, plunged, bucked, charged, and tackled until they actually out-played their heavy opponents in the last quarter. Sam Davis, in particular, played a consistent, ground-gaining game in spite of the fact that the interference failed to function as it should. The final score was 19-7.

THE SOUTHWESTERN GAME

The Lumberjacks went into this game badly handicapped by the absence of Ray at tackle and Summers at half. The team put up a hard fight, but they were overpowered by the heavier and more experienced Pirates. The Lumberjacks were forced to play a defensive game, because they could not do much with the heavy Southwestern line. After a hard fight, the Lumberjacks were beaten by a score of 33-0.

THE NATCHITOCHES GAME

Natchitoches brought a team here, undefeated and not scored upon for the season. They displayed the best brand of the art of generalship, co-operation, tackling and charging seen on our gridiron this year. The feature in this game was Davis's bucking and line-plunging. Summers kicked a field goal that was the first score chalked against Natchitoches. The scrap ended after dark, and the sideliners were unable to tell anything of the play. An outstanding feature of the game was the passing by each team. These were the only means of advancing consistently, as both lines worked like a stone wall.

JACKS DEFEAT RUSK

The game with the Indians was the easiest game played by the Lumberjacks, excepting the one with Hillsboro. The Indians played a defensive game the entire time. The 'Jacks were able to plow the Indian line almost any time they wished, while their own goal was never threatened.

COMMERCE GETS LUCKY END OF SCORE

As a climax to the season, Commerce administered a drubbing to the Lumberjacks on their own field before an immense crowd on Turkey Day. Though the Lions outweighed the 'Jacks fifteen pounds to a man, the game was not an easy one. Every man played his position well. Sam Davis, our line-plunging fullback, never failed to gain when called, carrying the ball 85 yards in two long drives. The 'Jacks could not, however, break up the East Texans' passes in the last quarter, and the result was a 2-12 defeat.

GEORGE MILLARD, Assistant Coach

George Millard, a native of this city, a four-year man in football, and captain of Sewanee's team of 1924, was forced to quit the game because of a broken ankle. Soon after he returned home, his services were secured as line coach. His experience as tackle makes him an exceptionally good line coach; and, although he did not start coaching until the middle of the season, he was a great help to Coach Shelton and to the team.

Mr. Millard's sunny smile and agreeable nature won for him the friend-ship, not only of every man on the squad, but of the entire school.

ZOLA AVERY, Captain, Guard

"Zummie's" hundred and fifty pounds of nerve and fight was an inspiration to his men. He never gave up, and the last minute of the game always found him fighting, regardless of the score.

SAM DAVIS, Captain-Elect, Fullback

Sam made a wonderful record during his first year in a Lumberjack uniform. He was possessed with that savage vim and relentless determination which should characterize every football player.

GREER ORTON, Athletic Business Manager

Greer Orton, who served as football, basket ball, and baseball manager, was a great help to the team and to the coaches. His sunny nature and his dependability has won for him a valued place in this college.

C. B. DAVIS, Tackle

C. B., captain of  $1^923$ , the college's first year, was out a large part of the season on account of illness, but because of his fine aggressive playing at tackle he was able to make a letter. He is expected to do much next season.

CHOCK THOMPSON, Quarterback

"Chock" ran the team like the old hand that he is. He was also a good man when it came to advancing the ball and breaking up passes.

HERMAN ALDERS, Halfback

Herman was one of the best men on the squad in backing up the line. He was one of the surest tacklers seen on the home field. In the game every minute, fighting with all he's got—that's Alders.

GLEN HALE, Halfback

Glen was a consistent player who could always be counted on to do the thing he was supposed to do.

BEN TUCKER, Center

A hard hitting and aggressive center with natural football instinct. Ben's specialty was diagnosing plays and stopping them before they got to the line.

George is one of the finest types of athletes in school. The harder he tackles, the more he likes it. He outplayed every opponent last season. He is good at either center or tackle.

T. C. JONES. Guard

Jones's opponents didn't seem to grow big enough to move him. He could always open a hole through any line when a gain was needed.

JESSE SUMMERS. Half

As a defensive half Jesse has few equals on a Texas gridiron. His speed and elusiveness added many a yard during the season.

"Wildcat" always moved his man. He was fast in getting down under punts.

A. B. CHANCY, End

A man with plenty of determination and hard to get out of a play.

RUSSELL NELSON, End

Nelson is a hard tackler and a man who puts everything he has into the game.

Kirk was good on receiving passes, and he was a hard tackler.

W. M. RAY, Tackle

Ray, with his 185 pounds of grit and fight, licked every man who played against him. His toe could always be depended on to punt out of danger.

LEWIS MARTINE, Half

Martine was one of the hardest hitting backs seen on the local gridiron. He could always be counted on for his three yards.

A RESUME OF THE SEASON

The basket ball team kept to the fast tune set in motion by the baseball squad of 1924, and it marched, too, by the pace set by football team of last fall. The prospects were gloomy for a while. No old men were back, and Coach Shelton had to build a team from the bottom up. This fact gave the Lumberjacks a disadvantage with teams having several second and third year men. The team developed rapidly, however, and was able to hold its own with first-class teams. Of the thirteen games played the Lumberjacks won eight. Eight games were played in the T. I. A. A., of which number three were won, and the other teams were held to a close score. A team, which, in its first year, can make a record such as this, ought to be able to develop into a great team in a few years. Every one of the men have three more years to play before them.

SAM HOUSTON

With the squad weakened by the ravages of the flu, the Lumberjacks invaded the lair of the Bearcats to open the season. The fighting was hot and fierce, but the ursine beast smacked his lips over two victories, 24-9 and 23-14; though, in the last half of the last game, the Lumberjacks got loose and rampaged recklessly all over the court, outplaying the Cats badly.

CANYON

For the next two games. Canyon, the T. I. A. A. champion of last year, wrestled with the Lumberjacks and downed him in both. The first game was anybody's from the first toss-up. The defense of both quintets worked like machinery, forcing long shots. Parker !ed the scoring with eight points. Though the scores were against us. 19-18 and 27-14, the play showed the result of long, hard hours of drill, practice, team-work, and coaching, with an aptitude for basket ball in the squad that promised a formidable machine.

STENE YEAT HER

RUSK

With only two days' rest, after Canyon's visit, the Lumberjacks went to Rusk and hammered the Indians to the tune of 41-10.

BURLESON

Burleson was the next victim, and they were decisively and effectively squelched. For the locals, everybody played good ball. Bradley and Joe Davis, aided occasionally by other members of the team, tossed 'em in from all angles. Sam Davis and Parker were on the job at guard, and Wier got the tip-off consistently at center. The score in this game was 42 to 10.

RUSK

Rusk was again defeated here. February 6. With Bradley out with the flu, the game was not as one-sided as the first game had been. The Lumberjacks won again, however, by a 28-25 score.

ST. EDWARDS

Then the St. Edwards aggregation came for two games on February 20 and 21. The locals were able to split with them, taking the first, 33-31, and dropping the second, 17-39. The first half of the first game was an easy mark for Coach Shelton's gang, Bradley tossing up sixteen points in the first half. The ball was up at center, tipped to the "Midget," and tossed through the basket—presto! But St. Edwards put a stop to this and put up a fight in the last half of the first game, and in the last game, they came back and beat the Jacks, 17-39.

SAN MARCOS

The Lumberjacks received the thrill of the season when the fast San Marcos quintet journeyed over here and dropped two games to them as a climax of the Lumberjacks' successful season. The Bobcats had veterans in their rounds, two of which were four-year men. They came trailing the reputation of being dangerous. The scores were not one-sided, 28-22 and 27-26, with the big end on the Lumberjacks' side in each game.

HUBERT BLACKBURN, Forward

Hubert was handicapped during the season because of sickness, but he developed into a good forward. He is a clean player and a hard worker.

GRADY BRADLEY, Forward

The "Lumberjack Midget" was a surprise to all his opponents. He seemed to be everywhere at once, and the basket came to meet his shots.

HALEY BUSH. Forward

One thing that Bush never learned about basket ball was when to give up. His weight and speed made him a hard man to cover. His specialty was long shots from the side.

JOE DAVIS, Forward

Every time he was sent in. Joe passed, faked, dribbled, scrapped and used every other trick of the game that is fair, square, and clean. That's Joe.

SAM DAVIS, Guard

Sam was one of the most consistent players on the team. He doesn't have any "off" days.

WHERE THE THE ST.

JAMES PARKER, Guard (Captain)

Parker is well qualified for the running guard position. He can handle the ball with any of them, and he is a good basket shooter. As captain, his men were always willing to follow him.

Fritz always gave all there was in him. He was a good man at both forward and at guard.

BEN TUCKER, Center

Ben has an educated left hand, which can slap the ball at center or toss it through the basket.

RICHARD WIER, Center

"Dick" knows his stuff when it comes to playing center.

BASEBALL RESUME OF 1924

Coach Shelton was able, in spite of many difficulties, to train a team of powerful wielders of the ash that made a record of which no school. even though older, need be ashamed. Only ten men ever suited-up for baseball. Of these, four—Gene Sanders, Kirk Willingham, "Wildcat" Bates, and Rastus Prince—were new in the game; the other six had played no college baseball. In spite of this handicap, the Lumberjacks won eight of fifteen games; of nine T. I. A. A. scraps, six final scores went to the credit of the Lumberjacks; all games except two were with colleges having senior rank. The 'Jacks failed to score in only two games, and their opponents' score was small in both. The only no-hit game of the season was pitched by D. M. Walker. No team met has a better record. This is just another evidence of Coach Shelton's ability.

The men who made letters in baseball last year are Everett Walker, Gene Sanders, D. M. Walker, Emmett Pack, Eura Bates, Luther Garner, Fred Tillery, John Walker, Kirk Willingham, and Howard Prince.

EVEN T FIVE

BOB SHELTON, Coach

Coach Shelton's never-give-up spirit instilled into the men in training was largely responsible for their successful season.

EVERETT WALKER, Catcher

Walker was back for a second year on the receiving end. He was one of the best hitters on the squad.

D. M. WALKER. Pitcher

Walker is remembered as the boy who pitched a no-hit game against Southwestern last year. He hasn't forgotten how it's done this year.

GLEN HALE, Second Base

Glen, although a two-year foot-ball man, is new in baseball. He is doing very creditable work on the keystone bag.

HOWARD PRINCE, Out Field

"Rastus" is dependable in the out field and at the bat. This is his second year in the Lumberjack uniform.

KIRK WILLINGHAM, Out Field

Kirk, the sunfielder, throws 'em out from center and works well at the bat.

GENE SANDERS, Short Stop (Captain)

This is Gene's second year on the squad. He has a good arm and can whip them across to first in a way that keeps 'em off the bases.

SAM DAVIS. First Base

Davis is heady and wields a hefty stick. If this doesn't tell you enough about him, look up his basket ball and football records.

JOHN WALKER, Out Field

Walker was one of our mainstays in 1924. He would undoubtedly have made a letter again this year had he not been forced to drop out of school.

C. N. THOMPSON, Third Base

Chock's playing shows that he learned something in his two years at Austin College and Rusk. He feels at home on third.

JOE DAVIS, Pitcher

This is Joe's first season in Lumberjack baseballdom. He pitches ball like he plays basket ball—with all he's got.

LEE CONNER. Out Field

Conner is a good fielder. He is always to be depended on when a hit or a sacrifice is needed.

CLEMON JONES, Pitcher

Jones, the third member of the pitching staff, is a three-year man from Lufkin. His playing shows he is no youngster at the game of willow wands.

ELBERT GRIFFIN, Out Field

Elbert fields like the best and is no slouch at the bat in spite of his diminutive size.

Track Squad of 1924

RESUME OF 1924 TRACK

When the 1924 track season came on, Mr. "Jimmie" Hinds volunteered his services as coach. Material was very scarce, but Mr. Hinds set himself the task of putting out a team anyhow.

Two meets were entered, a triple meet with San Marcos and Sam Houston at Huntsville and a dual meet with Sam Houston at Nacogdoches. The Lumberjacks didn't make a very big showing at Huntsville, but against such schools as Sam Houston and San Marcos they could hardly be expected to do much in their first year. Ray won first place in the discus, Redding came second in the hurdles, and Bailey second in the high jump. In the second meet, however, the Lumberjacks made a much better showing. Ray won three first places and one third, Garner won first place in the high jump, Willingham second in the hurdles, and Bailey won third in the high jump.

Much credit is due Mr. Hinds for his work in connection with the team.

Yell Leaders

"CASEY" FOUTS

HAZEL DOUGLAS

With the beginning of the football season in our own home, on our own gridiron, the need of a leader for the grandstand was realized. In a hotly contested election, Fred Tillery was chosen for the position. He appointed, as his assistants, Hazel Douglas and Wilbur Fouts. They worked valiantly and well and are largely responsible for the staunch support and good conduct of students at all games.

To our physical education teachers. Misses Broadfoot and Jagoe, we are indebted for many hours of pleasure both on the floor and in the fields. They have enthusiasm, originality, determination, and earnestness of purpose—the necessary characteristics of good leaders anywhere. Because of their direct contact with the students of the college, they have been inspirational to scores of girls. They have coached good basket ball teams and have sponsored a W. A. The women of the college met on February 4 and organized a Women's Athletic Association. The purpose of the W. A. A. is to promote interest in athletic activities among the women as a means of advancing physical efficiency, scholarship, and good fellowship.

The association will award honors to its members according to the point system of the Athletic Conference of American College Women, to which National organization the association has applied for recognition. Misses Broadfoot and Jagoe were chosen faculty advisors.

The Thomas J. Rusk Literary Society is a Young Men's organization composed of men of the college, who are desirous of the elevation and self-expression of our fellowmen. With this inspiration burning in our hearts, we look forth to function as a student's welfare organization which will radiate a life of usefulness.

We, the first organization of this nature in our institution, are well aware of the fact that we stand for great principles and for establishing marks to which future generations will aspire.

Our intentions are to absorb the esteem and fellowship of the twenty-nine members into a higher plane of thinking and living.

THE CLUB CALENDAR

Wednesday, November 26—The club gave its first entertainment, consisting of two one-act plays. "Wurzel Flummery." a satire comedy, and "The Wonder Hat," a harlequinade. The plays were well received by an audience which filled the college auditorium to the limit of its capacity.

Friday, December 12—"A Masque of Christmas" was presented at the college auditorium to an enthusiastic audience.

Thursday, January 29—The club entertained the members of the Canyon Basket Ball team and the Lumberjacks with a party at Mrs. Lockey's tea room.

Tuesday. February 24—The members enjoyed a theatre party. Seats were reserved for the club members at "The Marriage of Figaro."

In a one-act play contest, conducted by the Dramatic Club, Miss Pearl Miller's "The Coming of the Blue Bonnet" won the first prize. The play is a dramatization of Mrs. Bruce Reid's "The Indian Legend of the Blue Bonnet" from Legends of Texas, edited by J. Frank Dobie. The play will be presented by the Dramatic Club.

The club is, at the time that this book goes to press, working on the production of Booth Tarkington's "The Intimate Strangers."

SOCIETY

Diary of Miss Stephen F. Austin

Saturday. September 27—The student body of the college assembled at the home of their president for the purpose of getting acquainted. This task was skillfully accomplished by means of name tags, the punch bowl, and college songs. Everyone enjoyed the occasion, and many homesick students were made to forget their woes, for a time at least.

October 2—The members of the sub-college classes enjoyed a very successful weiner roast in Aqua Vita Park. Games and songs helped to while the time away.

October 23—The Y. W. C. A. entertained the Lumberjacks and the Beaumont Junior College football teams at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ferguson. A number of lively games were played, including the interesting game of table football, which was a test of lung expansion.

Sunday, October 26—Ye Campus Shoppe was the scene of a most enjoyable affair when Miss Mays entertained the girls of the Junior and Senior classes.

Friday, October 31—This was a "spooky time" in Nacogdoches. The witches, ghosts, goblins and devils were out in full force. The Aikman Hall was the play ground of the different spirits, and there ghosts and witches from the different classes and organizations furnished such hair-raising stunts that the blood of all beholders was frozen at the spectacle.

November 7—The college dining room was the scene of a dinner party honoring Mr. S. F. Aikman. Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Birdwell were host and hostess to the following guests: Mr. F. S. Aikman, honoree; Miss Margie E. Neal and Mr. Parnell, out of town guests; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Blount, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharp. Miss St. John, Miss Mays and Mrs. Gibbs. The dinner was supervised by Miss St. John and served by girls of the domestic science classes.

November 7—The Aikman Hall was formally opened and dedicated on this day. The interior was gay with autumn leaves and class colors. The classes marched to the seats decorated with their colors. They vied with each other in giving cheers and yells. Smith's "Novelty Five" furnished music for the occasion, and the Choral Club contributed a great part in making the program a success. The following dedicatory program was rendered:

November 13—A group of Y. W. C. A. girls foresook the warmth of their beds and met on the college campus at sunrise. They prepared breakfast over a campfire, and, after a prolonged meal, they dispersed to join their various classes.

November 15—At an invitation from Captain Cooper, owner of Ysleta Lake, the Scouts hiked to the lake for a fish fry.

Sunday afternoon, November 16—Miss Mays charmingly entertained the girls of the Sophomore Class at the Campus Shoppe. A number of girls were present and enjoyed the chatter over the tea cups.

November 17—The Aikman Hall was crowded with an expectant audience for a program that exceeded all expectations. Mr. Charles Crawford Gorst, one of the leading maturalists of the country, captivated his hearers with his imitation of various bird songs and with his interesting lecture on the habits of and peculiarities of birds.

November 17 and 18—By presenting their activity tickets at the office of Mr. Wisely, all students were given the privilege of seeing "The Covered Wagon" at the Palace Theatre.

Monday, Novmber 20—Ysleta Lake proved a most successful place for a "feed", as most of the football squad agreed after having completed the sumptuous repast placed before them by the Girl Scouts.

November 26—The Karle Wilson Baker Dramatic Club presented to a full house, its first entertainment of the season. Both of the plays, "Wurzel Flummery," a satirical comedy, and "The Wonder Hat," a Harlequinade, were delightful, indeed. The orchestra delighted the audience with several numbers before the opening of the play and between acts.

December 12—The Choral Club with the music classes and orchestra, under the direction of Miss Ida Pritchett, gave a Christmas Carol program at the assembly hour. The stage was beautifully decorated with pine boughs and smilax, which made an appropriate setting for the Choral Club in their white costumes. Traditional carols, both old English and French, and Festival carols composed the greater part of the program. One of the most enjoyable numbers was the "Carol of the Birds" given by the Training School.

December 12—In the college auditorium the Karle Wilson Baker Dramatic Club presented a Masque of Christmas. The dancing classes contributed several aesthetic dances to the entertainment. Christmas Carols were sung by Misses Birdwell, Phillips, Fouts, and Cook. The proceeds from the entertainment were used in the purchasing of scenery and a curtain, for which there was a dire need.

December 13—The thirty-four men that composed the football squad, the Athletic Council and Dr. Birdwell were the fortunate participants in a banquet held at the Redland Hotel on Demember 13. After the delicious food had quickly disappeared, very eloquent and spirited orations were given by the various guests. The most interesting part of the entertainment was the election of the new football captain and the awarding of the sweaters. Sam Davis was elected by his team-mates to lead the Lumberjacks to victory next season. Sweaters with two-arm stripes were awarded to Zola Avery (captain), C. B. Davis, "Wildcat" Bates. "Doc" Ray, Glen Hale, Kirk Willingham, Herman Alders and Jesse Summers. The following were awarded sweaters with a one-arm stripe: A. B. Chancey, Lawrence Martine, George Hamilton, Sam Davis (captain-elect), Ben Tucker, "Choc" Thompson and Russell Nelson.

December 15 and 16—Students of the college were admitted to the Palace Theatre on their activity tickets to see Mary Pickford in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," an historic and educational picture.

January 29—The Karle Wilson Baker Dramatic Club entertained the basket ball boys of Canyon Teachers College and those of S. F. A. at Mrs. Lockey's Tea Room.

January 31—The Methodist students of the college were entertained by the members of the Methodist Church. The party was held in the basement of the church: and from beginning to end, it proved a roaring success. About two hundred guests enjoyed this evening's entertainment.

GFA - STIT

A BUTTER TO BE

February 11—Tom Skeyhill was heard by a large audience in the college auditorium. In his famous lecture, "The Trojan War," Mr. Skeyhill pointed out the loathsomeness of war and the need for a world peace. These facts were more clearly brought to mind by his graphic description of the Gallipoli campaign. The audience was held spell-bound while this man, a British soldier, writer, lecturer, and poet, described in a most beautiful and picturesque language, the serene beauty of the Mediterranean, and then turned to the description of the horrors and brutality of war.

Tuesday, February 24—Students, faculty folks, and townspeople enjoyed Mozart's famous opera, "The Marriage of Figaro," which the Hinshaw Company presented under the auspices of the Lyceum committee of the college.

Monday, March 2—A very delightful program by the Cheney Concert Company was given at the college auditorium.

Besides the above mentioned Lyceum numbers, the college offered during the remainder of the year, several good picture shows, a Davies-Thomas, violinpiano recital on April 6, and Oscar Seagle, world-famous baritone, on April 27.

At the completion of the Aikman Hall the idea of open house was instigated. On every Saturday night, students desiring a little diversion are invited to come and enjoy the games, songs, and the Virginia Reel that are indulged in at open house.

Sparkplug—The other day they put a Freshman in a big, deep hole and covered him up with dirt.

Audry-For fun?

Sparkplug—Heck, naw! They had to. He died.

Casey Fouts—I don't know what to do with my week-end.

Evelyn Kennedy—I would suggest putting your hat on it.

When a girl looks sweet enough to eat, don't give her the opportunity.

Mrs. C. E. Ferguson—I don't see how you can sleep in a chair.

Mr. C. E.—But dear, you forget I spent five years in college.

Jack Burrows—"And dear, have you ever been kissed before?"

Mina—"I've only been kissed by two parties."

Jack-"And who are they?"

Mina-"Democrats and Republicans."

Mr. Garner (In History Class)—Who discovered America?

Glen Hale-Ohio.

Mr. Garner-No, Columbus.

Glen-Ah, that was his first name,

"There goes the phone," said the meeker half as his wife hurled it past his dome.

Laureate—Tell me, would you still love me, even though I were ugly?

Duke (absent mindedly)—My dear, you know I do.

Miss Foster—What is the largest city in Iceland?

Joseph Lockey—Iceburg.

Mr. Pochmann—Say, the jokes in the last issue of the PINE LOG were rotten.

Mary Edwards—I don't know. I threw a lot of them in the stove, and the fire just roared.

"Those guys sure have a mean line." said little George Washington after he had interviewed Mason and Dixon. Matkin—A fellow just told me I looked like you.

Alders—Where is he? I'd like to knock his block off.

Matkin-I've already killed him.

The country lad had just deposited a nickel in a pay-station phone.

Operator-Number, please?

Country Boy—Number, hell! You had better give me my chewing gum.

Mr. T. E. Ferguson—Sarah, do you know the names of all your practice teachers?

Sarah—Naw! And if I did, it wouldn't help any.

Mr. T. E.—Why not?

Sarah—'Cause they might as well all be called Phillips. All they do is "fill us up" on lessons.

Monique (drowsily)—Let him have 'em. I'm not hungry.

Mr. E. E. Davis—Why are you always late to class?

Burk Summers—Because of a sign I have to pass on my way here.

Mr. Davis—What has that to do with it?

Burk—Why, it says, "School Ahead: Go Slow!"

Savannah—We'd like to have you for dinner Sunday.

Ruby—I'm afraid you'll find me awful tough.
